

Digital Banking Terms and Conditions

This Agreement is the contract, which covers your and our rights and responsibilities concerning the Digital Services offered to you by Firstmark Credit Union ("Firstmark" and "Credit Union"). Digital Banking Services or Digital Services are described as services offered in both Online Banking and Mobile Banking. Services offered only in Online Banking or only in Mobile Banking will be identified throughout the terms below. In this Agreement, the words "you" and "yours" mean those who submit an authorization form for Digital Services. In this Agreement the words "we" and "us" and "our" and "ours" mean Firstmark Credit Union. The word "account(s)" means any one or more savings, checking and loan accounts you have with the Credit Union. By submitting an application or online enrollment, you agree to the following terms and conditions governing your and our rights and responsibilities concerning: Online Banking, Mobile Banking, Bill Payment, Text Banking, External Transfers, (collectively referred to as Electronic Funds Transfers "EFTs which includes wires") and Mobile Deposit (Remote Deposit Capture) Services involving your accounts (collectively "Digital Services" or "Services"). These Digital Services permit Firstmark Credit Union members to access and conduct transactions on linked Firstmark accounts and investment accounts with our affiliates, PSCU (including its affiliates), Midwest Mortgage Services, Trust Capital Group (TCG), SWBC Investments, and Lanvera, respectively. Unless indicated otherwise by the context, "linked Firstmark accounts" or "linked accounts" refers to all of your accounts with Firstmark or its affiliates that you have linked to Online Banking or External Transfers Services. Accounts other than Firstmark accounts will be governed by separate agreements and terms.

The terms of this Agreement apply to both consumer and business members, except as specifically provided in this Agreement. For consumer accounts, the member may enroll in the Services and is responsible for the acts of any joint account holder. Anyone enrolling represents that he or she is the primary account holder and is authorized to enroll in the Services. Anyone using the Services represents that he or she has full authority to use the Services and to engage in any action taken by him or her. For business and organizational accounts, the Services may be established by any authorized user of the account holder. Any joint account holder or an authorized user, acting alone, may affect transactions through the Services.

1. Account Access & Authorizations.

a. Account Ownership/Accurate Information. You represent that you are the legal owner of the accounts and other financial information which may be accessed via Digital Services. You represent and agree that all information you provide to us in connection with Mobile Web is accurate, current and complete, and that you have the right to provide such information to us for the purpose of operating the Digital Banking service. You agree to not misrepresent your identity or your account information. You agree to keep your account information up to date and accurate.

b. Initial Access. After you have successfully completed and submitted the Online or Mobile Banking service enrollment form, you will be notified through the online or mobile app of the service availability. Once notified, you may log on to the service, using your Login ID and Passcode or "Access Code." By completing the enrollment process for Digital Services, you will have access to Online and Mobile banking features.

c. Security of Password. The password is created by you the account holder for the Digital Banking Services outlined in these terms and is for your security. The password is confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded. You are solely responsible for safekeeping your password. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your password available to anyone not authorized by you to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to have or use your password, you understand that person may use the service to review all of your account information and make account transactions. Additional access codes may be required to gain access to your Online and Mobile banking services and are issued for your security. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your access code available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your password or access code(s) you understand that person may use the Digital Services to access, review and execute transactions on your account.

Therefore, we are entitled to act on transaction instructions received using your password and Access Code and you agree that the use of your password will have the same effect as your signature authorizing transactions. If you authorize anyone to have or use your password or internet enabled device, you understand that person may use the Online or Mobile Banking service to access and review all of your account information and execute account transactions.

d. General Authorization. If you authorize anyone to use your password or access code in any manner that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union and changing your access code immediately. You are responsible for any transactions made by such persons until you notify us that transactions and access by that person are no longer authorized and your access code is changed. If you fail to maintain or change the security of your access code, you are responsible for any losses resulting from such failure and may terminate your services immediately.

e. Access Authorizations & Account Controls. For business members, you have the option to establish controls and limitations on the authorized access to your account and the transaction functions and amounts that may be conducted. You are solely responsible for establishing and maintaining these access authorizations and account controls to protect your account. You may establish dual account access controls and you are solely responsible for such designations, the implementation and enforcement of your internal account authorization policies and the actions of the designees of such dual controls. You may authorize multiple users to access and conduct transactions on the account ("Sub Users") with specific account transaction authorities and limitations and you are solely responsible for such Sub User authorizations, the implementation and enforcement of your internal account authorization policies and the actions of your designated Sub Users.

f. Termination of Digital Services. You agree that we may terminate this Agreement and your Digital Services, if you, or any authorized user of the account, Service or Access code breach this or any other agreement with us; or if we have reason to believe that there has been an unauthorized use of your accounts or Passcode. You or any other party to your account can terminate this Agreement by notifying us in writing. Termination of service will be effective the first business day following receipt of your written notice. Termination of this Agreement will not affect the rights and responsibilities of the parties under this Agreement for transactions initiated before termination.

2. Conditions of Account and Service Use.

The use of your Account and Services are subject to the following conditions:

a. Account Information. The account balance and transaction history information may be limited to recent account information involving your accounts. Also, the availability of funds for transfer or withdrawal may be limited due to the processing time for any deposit transactions and our Funds Availability Policy.

b. Illegal Use of Internet Gambling. You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of an electronic funds transfer including a Debit or Credit Card are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States. Your electronic funds transfers may only be conducted for legal transactions. Display of a payment card logo by an online merchant does not mean that internet gambling transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which you may be located. We have restricted all online gambling transactions by use of an electronic funds transfer or Debit Card.

3. Online Banking Services.

a. Online Banking Services. Upon approval for the Online Banking service (Online), you may use your web browser-equipped device to access your accounts. You must use your Passcode along with your member Login ID to access your accounts. The Online Service is accessible seven days a week, 24 hours a day. You will need a compatible (please refer to the Firstmark website for compatible browsers) web browser-equipped device with access to the Internet. The online address for the Online Service www.firstmarkcu.org. You are responsible for the installation, maintenance, and operation of your computer. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures involving any data or communication service or your computer. At the present time, you may use the Online Service to:

- View current account balance and transaction history on your linked or Firstmark accounts.
- Transfer funds between a linked or Firstmark deposit account(s), member-to-member account(s), or loan account(s) on a one-time or recurring basis.
- Initiate outgoing wire requests and review all wire requests submitted via digital banking.
- Schedule a bill payment or transfer to an individual (Person to Person) or company.
- Deposit checks via Mobile Deposit (Remote Deposit Capture) services.
- Apply for a loan product.
- Open a secondary account.
- Perform self-service account maintenance such as:
 - Re-ordering checks,
 - Viewing and printing copies of paid checks.
 - View and print monthly loan, checking, or savings statements (upon opting in to review electronic statements).
 - Stopping payment on checks.
 - Updating contact information such as an address, email address, and phone number.
 - Changing login ID and digital banking password.
 - Sending us a secure online mail messages and questions regarding the Online Banking service

Transactions involving your deposit accounts, including checking account stop payment requests, will be subject to the terms of your Membership and Account Agreement and transactions involving a Line of Credit account will be subject to your Loan Agreement and Disclosures, as applicable.

b. Access to Accounts. By using the Online service, you certify you are an owner, joint owner or custodian on the accounts represented in your Online enrollment. You understand that all owners of your accounts or anyone with whom you share your Passcode or any Login ID or access code will be an Authorized User, and that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner with full authority to perform all transactions relating to the stated accounts, until you notify the Credit Union, in writing of the revocation of such authority. You agree that you are and will remain fully responsible for any transactions made by such persons on your accounts except transactions that occur after the Credit Union has been notified of any revocation of authority and has had a reasonable opportunity to act upon such notice.

c. Online Service Limitations. The following limitations on Online transactions may apply in using the services listed above. In addition, limitations may apply depending on the mobile device being used (i.e. Mobile Phone or Tablet).

Transfers. You may transfer or withdraw up to the available balance in your account or up to the available credit limit on a line of credit at the time of the transfer, except as limited under this Agreement or your deposit or loan agreements. Funds transferred into your account via the Online Service may not be immediately available for use. Internal transfers initiated through Online are posted to your account the same day. External transfers completed after 2:00 p.m. will be posted the next business day (including weekends holidays). The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction that would draw upon insufficient or unavailable funds, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account.

d. Account Information. The account balance and transaction history information may be limited to recent account information involving your accounts. Also, the availability of funds for transfer or withdrawal may be limited due to the processing time for ATM transactions and our Funds Availability Policy.

e. Electronic Instructions. You agree that all electronic instructions that we receive through Online or otherwise in connection with the Services, such as those directing us to take action with respect to your account, that match Access Information or other identifying information you have provided when enrolling in or using the Services will be deemed valid, authentic, and binding obligations. Pursuant to law and regulations, these electronic instructions therefore will be given the same legal effect as your written and signed paper instructions, shall be considered writing or in writing and shall be deemed for all purposes (i) to have been signed and (ii) to constitute an original when printed from electronic files or records established and maintained in the normal course of business.

4. Mobile Banking Services.

Mobile Banking (Mobile Application) is a personal financial information management service that allows you to access account information and make financial transactions as offered using compatible and supported mobile phones and/or other compatible and supported wireless devices (including phones, "Wireless Devices"). We reserve the right to modify the scope of the Mobile Banking services at any time. We reserve the right to refuse to make any transaction you request through Mobile Banking. You agree and understand that Mobile Banking may not be accessible or may have limited utility over some mobile telephone networks, such as while roaming. The most up-to-date list of services that you may be able to access through Mobile Banking is on our website at www.firstmarkcu.org. When you register for Mobile Banking, designated accounts and payees (or billers) linked to your account through Online will be accessible through the Mobile Banking service.

a. Use of Services. At the present time, you may use the Mobile Banking Service to:

- View current account balance, and transaction history on your linked or Firstmark accounts.
- Transfer funds between a linked or Firstmark deposit account(s), member to member account(s), or loan account(s) on a one-time or recurring basis.
- Initiate outgoing wire requests and review all wire requests submitted via digital banking.
- Schedule a bill payment or transfer to an individual (Person to Person) or company.
- Deposit checks via Mobile Deposit (Remote Deposit Capture) services.
- Apply for a loan product.
- Open a secondary account.
- Perform self-service account maintenance such as:
 - Re-ordering checks,

- Viewing and printing copies of paid checks.
- View and print monthly loan, checking, or savings statements (upon opting in to review electronic statements).
- Stopping payment on checks.
- Updating contact information such as an address, email address, and phone number.
- Changing login ID and digital banking password.

Mobile Banking will not work unless you use it properly. You accept responsibility for making sure that you understand how to use Mobile Banking before you actually do so, and you use Mobile Banking in accordance with the online instructions posted on our website and within the platform. You also accept responsibility for making sure that you know how to properly use your wireless device and the Credit Union Mobile Application (Mobile App) required to use the Service. The Mobile App is provided by a service provider not affiliated with the Credit Union and you are solely responsible for entering a license agreement to use the software. We will not be liable to you for any losses caused by your failure to properly use the Mobile Banking service, the Software or your wireless device. You may experience technical or other difficulties related to the Mobile Banking service that may result in loss of data, personalization settings or other Mobile Access service interruptions. We assume no responsibility for the timeliness, deletion, mis-delivery or failure to store any user data, communications or personalization settings in connection with your use of the Mobile Banking service. We assume no responsibility for the operation, security, or functionality of any wireless device or mobile network which you utilize to access the Mobile Banking service. Financial information shown on the Mobile Banking service reflects the most recent account information available through the Mobile Banking service. You agree that we will not be liable for any delays in the content, or for any actions you take in reliance thereon. If you need current account information you agree to contact us directly.

b. Access to Accounts. By using the Mobile Banking service, you certify you are an owner, joint owner or custodian on the accounts represented in your Online enrollment. You understand that all owners of your accounts or anyone with whom you share your Password or any Login ID or access code will be an Authorized User, and that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner with full authority to perform all transactions relating to the stated accounts, until you notify the Credit Union, in writing of the revocation of such authority. You agree that you are and will remain fully responsible for any transactions made by such persons on your accounts except transactions that occur after the Credit Union has been notified of any revocation of authority and has had a reasonable opportunity to act upon such notice.

c. Relationship to Other Agreements. You agree that when you use Mobile Banking, you will remain subject to the terms and conditions of all your existing agreements with us or any service providers of yours; including service carrier or provider and that this Agreement does not amend or supersede any of those agreements. You understand that those agreements may provide for fees, limitations and restrictions which might impact your use of Mobile Banking (for example, your mobile service carrier or provider may impose data usage or text message charges for your use of or interaction with Digital Banking, including while downloading the Software, receiving or sending Digital Banking text messages, or other use of your Wireless device when using the Software or other products and services provided by Mobile Banking), and you agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations and restrictions. You agree that only your mobile service carrier or provider is responsible for its products and services. Accordingly, you agree to resolve any problems with your carrier or provider directly with your carrier or provider without involving us. You also agree that if you have any problems with Mobile Banking, you will contact us directly.

d. Mobile Banking Service Limitations and Conditions. When you use the Mobile Banking service to access accounts, you agree to the following limitations and conditions:

e. Account Ownership/Accurate Information. You represent that you are the legal owner of the accounts and other financial information which may be accessed via Mobile Banking. You represent and agree that all information you provide to us in connection with Mobile Banking is accurate, current, and complete, and that you have the right to provide such information to us for the purpose of operating the Mobile Banking service. You agree to not misrepresent your identity or your account information. You agree to keep your account information up to date and accurate.

f. Additional Service Limitations. Neither we nor our service providers can always foresee or anticipate technical or other difficulties related to Mobile Banking. These difficulties may result in loss of data, personalization settings or other Mobile Banking interruptions. Neither we nor any of our service providers assume responsibility for the timeliness, deletion, mis-delivery or failure to store any user data, communications or personalization settings in connection with your use of Mobile Banking. Neither we nor any of our service providers assume responsibility for the operation, security, functionality or availability of any Wireless device or mobile network which you utilize to access Mobile Banking. You agree to exercise caution when utilizing the Mobile Banking application on your Wireless device and to use good judgment and discretion when obtaining or transmitting information. Financial information shown on Mobile Banking reflects the most recent account information available through Digital Banking and may not be current. You agree that neither we nor our service providers will be liable for any delays in the content, or for any actions you take in reliance thereon. If you need current account information you agree to contact us directly.

5. Bill Payment Services.

The Bill Payment services are offered to consumer and business users. When you use the bill payment service ("Bill Pay") you must designate your checking account as the account from which payments that you authorize will be deducted. You will be given the ability to set up merchants, institutions or individuals that you would like to pay. You are not permitted to designate governmental agencies or courts. All payees must be in the United States. We reserve the right to not allow the designation of a particular merchant or institution. Your enrollment in Bill Pay may not be fulfilled if we cannot verify your identity or other necessary information. In order to verify ownership of the Payment Account(s) or Billing Account, we may issue offsetting debits and credits to the Payment Account and Billing Account and require confirmation of these transactions from you. Through your enrollment in Bill Pay, you agree that we may request and review your credit report from a credit reporting agency. In addition, you agree that we may obtain financial information regarding your account from a payee or your financial institution to resolve payment posting problems or for verification.

a. Service Access. Upon approval, you may use your personal computer or mobile device to access your accounts. You must use your Login ID along with your password and any required security codes to access your accounts. Online Banking credentials are individually owned. The Bill Payment service is accessible seven (7) days a week, 24 hours a day. However, from time to time, some or all of the Credit Union's Bill Payment services may not be available due to system maintenance. You will need an Internet-enabled device and an appropriate web browser. You are responsible for the installation, maintenance, and operation of your computer or other access device. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures involving any internet service provider, telephone service, or your equipment.

b. Service Definitions.

- "Payee" is the person or entity to which you wish a bill payment to be directed or is the person or entity from which you receive electronic bills, as the case may be.
- "Payment Instruction" is the information provided by you to the Credit Union for a bill payment to be made to the Payee (such as, but not limited to, Payee name, Payee account number, and Deliver By Date).
- "Payment Account" is the checking account from which bill payments will be debited.
- "Billing Account" is the checking account from which all service fees will be automatically debited.
- "Business Day" is every Monday through Friday, excluding Federal Reserve holidays.
- "Deliver By" date is the day you want your Payee to receive your bill payment unless the Deliver By date falls on a non-Business Day in which case it will be considered to be the next available Business Day.
- "Send On" Date - is the the day your Payment Account will be debited from your designated account. This can also be known as the Process Date.
- "Due Date" is the date reflected on your Payee statement for which the payment is due. It is not the late date or grace period. Deliver By" date is the day you want your Payee to receive your bill payment.

c. Payment Scheduling. The earliest possible Deliver By date for each Payee (Typically, four (4) or fewer Business Days from the current date) will be designated within the application when you are scheduling the payment. Therefore, you will not be permitted to select a Deliver By date less than the earliest possible Deliver By date designated for each Payee. When scheduling payments, you must select a Deliver By that is no later than the actual Due Date reflected on your Payee statement unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Deliver By date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Deliver By dates should be prior to any late date or grace period.

d. Bill Pay Transactions. You authorize us to process Bill Pay transactions from your checking account. You or any persons whom you have authorized to use your Bill Pay service or Password can perform the following Bill Pay transactions:

- Make Bill Payments. Pay any designated merchant, institution or individual in accordance with this agreement, a fixed recurring amount or a variable amount from your designated checking account.
- Obtain Information. Obtain information (payee information, payment status information, etc.) about your bill payment account status.
- Bill Pay Payment Transactions. You authorize us to process bill payments from your designated account. You may use the Bill Pay service to initiate different types of payment transactions.
- Payment Transactions. You may use Bill Pay to initiate three different types of bill payment transactions:

"Single" payments are one-time payments initiated by setting the payment amount and future payment date. Payments can be canceled or changed through Bill Pay until funds are withdrawn from the account. "Recurring" payments are payments that reoccur on a preset date with a fixed amount. You have the option in Bill Pay to set recurring payments to continue indefinitely or to stop on a specific date. Payments can be canceled or changed through Bill Pay until funds are withdrawn from the account.

e. Number and Authorized Payees. You may schedule payments with payees located in the United States. Except for tax payments you may not make payments to federal, state or local governments or other categories of payees we designate from time to time. When you submit a Bill Pay transaction, you authorize us to transfer funds from your checking account. We will process Bill Pay transactions only to those payees the Credit Union has designated, payees you authorize and payees for whom the Credit Union has the proper payee member number. The Credit Union will not process any Bill Pay transfer if we know the required transaction information is incomplete. In any event, the Credit Union will not be liable for any transaction that contains incorrect information that the Credit Union was not responsible for entering or knowing. If there are insufficient funds in your account to process the Bill Pay transaction, we may refuse to process the transaction or we may process the transaction and transfer funds from any overdraft protection account you have authorized. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to process transactions that reasonably appear to the Credit Union to be fraudulent or erroneous.

f. Bill Payment Authorization and Payment Remittance. By providing the Credit Union with names and account information of Payees to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize the Credit Union to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives through the payment system. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Credit Union may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Payee directives. When the Credit Union receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize the Credit Union and its processing agents to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as soon as reasonably possible after the Deliver By date designated by you. You also authorize the Credit Union and its processing agents to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to the Credit Union by the United States Postal Service or Payee, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Bill Pay Service. The Credit Union will use its best efforts to make all of your payments properly. However, the Credit Union shall incur no liability if the Credit Union is unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances: If, through no fault of the Credit Union, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account; The payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the Credit Union about the malfunction before you execute the transaction; You have not provided the Credit Union with the correct Payment Account information, or the correct name, address, phone number, or account information for the Payee; and/or, circumstances beyond control of the Credit Union (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Credit Union has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances. Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Credit Union causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Payee which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Credit Union shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing to the proper Payee any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

h. Payment Methods. The Credit Union reserves the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf to your Payee. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic payment, an electronic to check payment or a laser draft payment. (Funds remitted to the Payee are deducted from your Payment Account on the "Send On" date as authorized by you).

i. Payment Cancellation Requests. You may cancel or edit any Deliver By Payments (including recurring payments) by following the directions within the application. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Delivery By payment. Once the Credit Union has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

j. Stop Payment Requests. The Credit Union's ability to process a stop payment request will depend on the payment method and whether or not a check has cleared. The Credit Union may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been processed, you must contact Customer Service. Although the Credit Union will make every effort to accommodate your request, the Credit Union will have no liability for failing to do so. The Credit Union may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each stop payment request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable fee schedule.

k. Prohibited Payments. Payments to Payees outside of the United States or its territories are prohibited through the Bill Pay Service.

l. Relationship to Other Agreements. You agree that when you use the Bill Pay Service, you will remain subject to the terms and conditions of all your existing agreements with us. In the event of a conflict between this Section 5 and any other agreements with us, the terms and conditions of this Section 5 shall control but only to the extent of any such conflict.

6. External Transfer Services.

a. External Transfer Services. By enrolling in Digital Services you agree to the following service terms and conditions. By using compatible and supported devices the Service allows you to electronically transfer funds from your account with us to your account at another financial institution, or from your account with us to other individuals' accounts. The Service is only available for accounts at U.S. financial institutions and funds are transferred in U.S. dollars. We reserve the right to modify the scope of Online Money Movement Services at any time. We reserve the right to refuse to make any transaction you request through the Service. You agree and understand the Service may not be accessible or may have limited utility over some mobile telephone networks, such as while roaming.

b. Definitions.

- "ACH Network" means the funds transfer system, governed by the NACHA Rules that provides funds transfer services to participating financial institutions.
- "Transaction Account" is a transaction account (checking, money market or other direct deposit account, credit card account, or debit card account, including any required routing information) from which your payments as a Sender will be debited, any Service fees will be automatically debited, or to which payments and credits to you will be credited.

- "Transfer Instruction" is the information provided by the Sender to the Service for a transfer or payment to be made to a Receiver (name, mobile telephone number, email address, and financial institution account and routing number information, etc.).
- "Receiver" is a person or business entity that is sent a payment transaction through the Service.
- A "Sender" is a person or business entity that sends a payment transaction through the Service.

c. Account-to-Account Transfer Service. The Account-to Account Service enables you to transfer funds: (i) between your Firstmark accounts that you maintain with us; and (ii) between your Firstmark account(s) that you maintain with us and your Account(s) that are maintained by other financial institutions.

d. Transfer Authorization and Processing. You represent and warrant that you are the sole owner (and not a joint tenant) of your Firstmark account (Transaction Account) and the Recipient Account and that you have all necessary legal right, power and authority to transfer funds from the Transaction Account to the Recipient Account. Further, you represent and warrant that the Recipient Account is located in the United States. When we receive a Transfer Instruction from you, you authorize us to debit your Transaction Account and remit funds on your behalf to the Recipient Account designated by you and to debit one of your Accounts. You also authorize us to reverse a transfer from your Recipient Account if the debit is returned from the Transaction Account for any reason, including but not limited to nonsufficient funds.

e. Transfer Methods and Amounts. We may, at our sole discretion, impose limits on the amount of money you can transfer through our Account-To-Account Service. We also reserve the right to select the method in which to transfer funds on your behalf, and the method to return funds to you in the event that the Recipient Account is closed or otherwise unavailable to us.

f. Transfer Cancellation Requests and Refused Transfers. You may cancel a transfer at any time until it begins processing. We will, to the extent permitted by law, make reasonable attempts to return any unclaimed, refused, refunded, prohibited, or denied transfer to your Transaction Account. If this is unsuccessful (for example, the Transaction Account has been closed) we will make reasonable attempts to mail you a paper check. If after ninety (90) days (or longer, depending on our then-current standard for unclaimed checks) that check has not been cashed, we will stop payment on it and transfer funds to an "unclaimed funds" account, and will subsequently handle the unclaimed funds as required or otherwise permitted by applicable law.

g. Stop Payment Requests. If you as a Sender desire to stop any transfer that has already been processed, you must contact us. Although we will make a reasonable effort to accommodate your request, we will have no liability for failing to do so. We may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable fee schedule.

h. Failed or Returned Transfers. In using the Account-To-Account Service, you are requesting us to make transfers for you from your Transaction Account. If we are unable to complete the transfer for any reason associated with your Transaction Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Transaction Account to cover the transaction), the transfer may not be completed. In each such case, you agree that: (a) You will reimburse us immediately upon demand the transfer amount that has been returned to us; (b) For any amount not reimbursed to us within fifteen (15) days of the initial notification, a late charge equal to one and a half percent (1.5%) monthly interest or the legal maximum, whichever rate is lower, for any unpaid amounts may be imposed; (c) You may be assessed a fee by us if the transfer is returned because you have insufficient funds in your Transaction Account to cover the requested transfer or if we cannot otherwise collect the funds from you; the fee amount will be as set forth in your fee schedule from us or your Account agreement with us; (d) You hereby authorize us to deduct these amounts from your designated Account by ACH debit; and (e) You will reimburse us for any fees or costs we or they incur in attempting to collect the amount of the return from you; and, (e) We are authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.

i. Refused Transfers. We reserve the right to refuse any transfer to a Recipient Account.

We may notify you promptly if we decide to refuse to transfer funds to a Recipient Account. This notification is not required if you attempt to make a prohibited transfer under this Agreement.

j. Returned Transfers. In using the Account-To-Account Service, you understand transfers may be returned for various reasons such as, but not limited to, the Recipient Account number is not valid. We will use reasonable efforts to research and correct the transfer to the intended Recipient Account or void the transfer and credit your Transaction Account. You may receive a notification from us.

k. Your Responsibilities for Accurate Information. Your enrollment in the Service may not be fulfilled if we cannot verify your identity or other necessary information. Through your enrollment in the Service, you agree that we reserve the right to request a review of your credit rating at our own expense through an authorized bureau. It is your responsibility to ensure the accuracy of any information that you enter into the Service, and for informing us as soon as possible if you become aware that this information is inaccurate. We will make a reasonable effort to stop or recover a transfer made to the wrong Recipient Account once informed, but we do not guarantee such recovery and will bear no responsibility or liability for damages resulting from incorrect information entered by you.

7. Domestic Wires

You may initiate a domestic wire transfer from your account. Our wire transfer cut-off hours are presented within the Wire Menu and Disclosure in Digital Banking for domestic wires. Wire transfers, cancellations or amendments received after the applicable cutoff time may be treated as having been received on the next Business Day. We will charge your account for the amount of any authorized funds transfer including any wire transfer fees as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. International wire transfers are not available through Digital Banking. All wire transfers made through digital banking will be made in the Member Owner's name.

a. Security Procedures. You agree any wire transfer order could be subject to the agreed security procedures including: photo identification requirements, signature verification, data/password verification, use of a personal identification number (PIN) verification, and agreed callback procedures. For wire transfer orders processed through facsimile or by telephone we may require a call back password verification. If we are unable to reach you by phone to verify the password security within two business days of your wire request, we may cancel the wire request without notice. You agree if we comply with the agreed written security procedures you shall be liable for payment of the transferred amount plus transfer fees, even if the transfer request is not actually transmitted or authorized by you. If we do not follow the agreed security procedure but can prove the transfer request was originated by you, you will still be liable for the transfer amount plus transfer fees. You authorize us to record any telephone calls relating to any transfer under this Agreement. We may reject any transfer request or incoming wire transfer which does not conform to the limitations, security procedures, and requirements and for any reason, except when prohibited by law.

b. Notice of Errors & Liability. It is your obligation to examine your statements for any discrepancy concerning any wire transfer. If you fail to notify us of statement or transaction errors as required under this Agreement, we will not be liable for, and you agree to hold us harmless from any loss which you could have prevented. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any liability, damages or expenses including reasonable attorneys fees, resulting from acts, or omissions, by you or any other person acting on your behalf. We will not be liable for acts or omissions by you or any other person; including without limitation any wire transfer system, any Federal Reserve Bank, any Beneficiary Bank, and any Beneficiary, none of which shall be deemed the Credit Union's agent. We will be excused from delaying or failing to act if caused by emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond the Credit Union's control. In no event shall we be liable for any consequential, special, punitive or indirect losses or damages incurred relating to this Agreement, including any subsequent wrongful dishonor resulting from our acts or omissions. You understand you have no right to cancel or amend any transfer request after receipt by us; however, we shall use reasonable efforts to act on a cancellation or change request so long as it is received in a reasonable time within which to act upon such instructions. We shall have no liability if the cancellation or change is not affected. You may not initiate any wire transfer to facilitate any transaction related to internet gambling. In the event that the funds transfer is delayed or erroneously executed and a loss is suffered as a result of our error, our sole obligation is to pay or refund such amounts as may be required by applicable law. If we become obligated under UCC Article 4A to pay interest, you agree the interest rate will be the dividend rate applicable to the account to which the funds transfer was or should have been made. The origination of Domestic Wire Transfer orders through the Credit Union shall be governed by Texas law, UCC Article 4A, and Federal Reserve Regulation J, any Wire Transfer Agreement and Authorization.

8. Mobile Deposit (Remote Deposit Capture) Services.

By using the Mobile Deposit Service (“Service”) or by electronically accepting these Mobile Deposit Terms and Conditions within Online or Mobile Banking, you and any joint owners or authorized users, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, and any amendments. The Mobile Deposit Service allows you to scan paper checks (“Original Checks”) with the camera on your mobile device (“Remote Deposit Capture”) and electronically deliver the images and associated deposit information (“Check Images”) to the Credit Union or our processor for deposit into your Credit Union account. Credit Union members are eligible to use the Mobile Deposit Service immediately following your initial account opening and service eligibility and will continue if you are in good standing with the Credit Union. The Credit Union’s determination of good standing may be made on a daily basis and includes criteria including but not limited to: no delinquent loans, no charged off loans, no excessive NSF or negative account history, no member privilege revocation or internal fraud warnings, never causing the Credit union a loss or other conduct the Credit Union considers abusive. Mobile Deposit services will not be available to Minor, Rep-Payee, Memorial, Estate and Non-Member accounts.

a. Mobile Deposit Access and Process. If we approve the Mobile Deposit service for you, you must use your Online Passcode with your Login to access your accounts. You may photograph an image of checks with your Mobile device creating an electronic image and you may transmit the electronic image that the Credit Union will deposit to your account. The Credit Union's processing agent shall perform an image quality assessment of the imaged checks and shall convert items meeting the Credit Union's required standards into substitute checks to facilitate the deposit and collection of such items. You agree that the manner in which checks are cleared or presented for payment shall be determined by the Credit Union, in its sole discretion. We reserve the right to select the clearing agents through which we clear checks.

b. Funds Availability. For purposes of funds availability, Mobile Deposits are considered deposited at a branch and are subject to deposit cut off times and limitations. Mobile Deposits confirmed as received before 5 pm on a business day will be available for withdrawal from your account within 1 business day. There may be additional holds on deposited items as set forth in the Credit Union's Funds Availability Policy disclosure, as amended from time to time, which is incorporated herein by reference. For purposes of determining the cut-off period for deposits and the availability of funds, checks deposited via Mobile Deposit session are considered received by the Credit Union when the checks have cleared and funds are available to the Credit Union. You agree that the imaging and transmitting of checks alone does not constitute receipt by Credit Union. Also, acknowledgment of receipt or delivery does not constitute an acknowledgment by Credit Union that the transmission of a check or items does not contain errors or that funds will be available. Deposit Acceptance. You agree that Credit Union may at any time, in its sole discretion, refuse to accept deposits of checks from you via Mobile Deposit session. In the event that the Service is interrupted or are otherwise unavailable, you may deposit checks in-person at a Credit Union branch or via night drop or mail or other contractually acceptable method. Once you make a deposit, you may not attempt to deposit the check in any other manner.

c. Member Account & Responsibilities. You may designate any Credit Union account as the settlement account to be used for the purposes of settling, transactions requested in connection with the Service. We will provide you with details of each specific transaction. You will be responsible for reviewing and balancing of any settlement account.

d. Responsibility for Imaging. You are solely responsible for imaging deposit items, accessing the service from the Credit Union and for maintaining your imaging equipment and device settings (Mobile Device). You will be responsible for the payment of all telecommunications expenses associated with the service. Credit Union shall not be responsible for providing or servicing any Equipment for you. Responsibility for Check Endorsements. For all mobile check deposits, you must endorse the original paper check with your name, signature and providing: "FOR MOBILE DEPOSIT ONLY AT FMCU " or as otherwise instructed. If you fail to provide this endorsement, we may refuse the deposit and return it to you and you agree to indemnify the Credit Union from any liability or loss to the Credit Union arising from the payment of the original paper check without such required endorsement.

e. Deposit Requirements and Limits. You agree that you will only use the Service to deposit checks drawn on financial institutions within the United States, excluding its territories. For checks not falling within this requirement you must deposit those checks in person, using a night drop facility or by U.S. Mail. You agree that each check you deposit through the Service will meet the image quality standards directed in the application. The deposit cut-off time is generally 3:00 pm on business days, excluding Saturday. Any deposits made after the cut will be processed the next business day. Deposit Limits Deposit limits will apply to users based upon financial history and qualification. These limits may include daily deposit item limits; daily maximum deposit amounts and maximum monthly amounts. Your limit may change daily based on your account activity you may not be notified in advance of the limit change going into effect. We may establish different limits on the dollar amount and/or number of items or deposits from time to time. If you attempt to initiate a deposit in excess of these limits, we may reject your deposit. If we permit you to make a deposit in excess of these limits, such deposit will still be subject to the terms of this Agreement, and we will not be obligated to allow such a deposit at other times.

f. Check Retention & Destruction. You agree that all checks belong to you and not to the Credit Union and that those items shall be handled in accordance with this Agreement and your Membership and Account Agreement. After our receipt of a deposit transmission, we will acknowledge by electronic means our receipt of such transmission. Your electronic transmission is subject to proof and verification. You will retain the original of all imaged checks that have been deposited via Mobile Deposit for a reasonable period of time in order to verify settlement and credit or to balance periodic statements, but in no case beyond thirty-five (35) days from the date processed. It is your responsibility to properly destroy and dispose of such original checks after such time. During the period that you maintain any original checks, you understand and agree that you must use a high degree of care to protect these original checks against security risks. These risks include, without limitation, (i) theft or reproduction of the original checks (including by employees) for purposes of presentment for deposit of these original checks (i.e., after the original checks have already been presented for deposit via the Service) and (ii) unauthorized use of information derived from the original checks. When you dispose of any original checks, you understand and agree that you must use a high degree of care when selecting and implementing disposal procedures to ensure that the original checks are destroyed and not accessed by unauthorized persons.

g. Deposit Prohibitions. You agree not to deposit, or attempt to deposit, or allow others, either directly or indirectly, to deposit, or attempt to deposit, by any means: (i) any Substitute Check, the original of which has already been presented for deposit via the Service, (ii) any image of a check that has already been deposited either as an original or as a substitute check, or (iii) any original check, the Substitute Check of which has already been presented for deposit via Mobile Deposit. In the event that you, or any third party, makes, or attempts to make, a deposit in violation of this Subsection you agree to defend, indemnify, and hold Credit Union and its agents harmless from and against all liability, damage and loss arising out of any claims, suits, or demands brought by third parties with respect to any such Substitute Check or original check. You agree that the aggregate amount of any items which are deposited more than once will be debited from your account, and to the extent funds in your account are insufficient to cover such amount, any balance shall be debited by Credit Union from any other deposit accounts with Credit Union in its sole discretion. You further acknowledge that you and not the Credit Union is responsible for the processing and handling of any original items which are imaged and deposited utilizing the Service and you assume all liability to the drawer of any item imaged using the service or liability arising from the Credit Union's printing of any substitute check from those images.

h. Your Representations and Warranties. You represent and warrant:

- That you will comply with all federal and state laws, and rules and regulations applicable to deposit and check transactions, including those of the National Automated Clearing House for ACH transactions;
- That all checks deposited through the Service are made payable to you;
- That all signatures on each check are authentic and authorized; and
- That each check has not been altered.

In the event you breach any of these representations or warranties, you agree to defend, indemnify and hold Credit Union and its agents harmless from and against all liability, damages and loss arising out of any claims, suits or demands brought by third parties with respect to any such breach. You further authorize the Credit Union to charge your account for the amount of any such demand, claim or suit that constitutes a breach of warranty claim under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code.

i. Financial Responsibility. You understand that you remain, solely and exclusively responsible for any and all financial risks, including, without limitation, insufficient funds associated with accessing the Service. The Credit Union shall not be liable in any manner for such risk unless Credit Union fails to follow the procedures described in materials for use of the service. You assume exclusive responsibility for the consequences of any instructions you give to the Credit Union, for your failures to access the Service properly in a manner prescribed by the Credit Union, and for your failure to supply accurate input information, including, without limitation, any information contained in an application.

j. Account Reconciliation. You will verify and reconcile any out-of-balance condition, and promptly notify the Credit Union of any errors within the time periods established in the Membership and Account Agreement after receipt of your account statement. If notified within such period, the Credit Union shall correct and resubmit all erroneous files, reports, and other data at the Credit Union's then standard charges, or at no charge, if the erroneous report or other data directly resulted from the Credit Union's error.

k. Credit Union's Obligations.

Financial Data. The Credit Union agrees to transmit all the financial data under its control required to utilize the service selected by you and to act on appropriate instructions received from you in connection with such service. The Credit Union shall exercise due care in seeking to preserve the confidentiality of the user number, Passcode, test key, or other code or identifier and to prevent the use of the service by unauthorized persons.

Service Availability. You understand that Service availability is at all times conditioned upon the corresponding operation and availability of the communication systems used in communicating your instructions and requests to the Credit Union. We will not be liable or have any responsibility of any kind for any loss or damage thereby incurred by you in the event of any failure or interruption of such communication systems or services resulting from the act or omission of any third party, or from any other cause not reasonably within the control of the Credit Union.

Exception Items. When we review and process your electronic file, we may reject any electronic image that we determine to be ineligible for the service ("Exception Item") including, without limitation, electronic images of items drawn on banks located outside the United States, items drawn on U.S. Banks in foreign currency, electronic images that are illegible (due to poor image quality or otherwise), electronic images of items previously processed, electronic images previously converted to substitute checks, and electronic images with unreadable MICR information. We will notify you of any Exception Items. You agree that if you wish to attempt to deposit any Exception Item to any of your accounts with Credit Union, you will only do so by depositing the original item on which the Exception Item is based. You acknowledge and agree that even if you do not initially identify an electronic image as an Exception Item, the substitute check created by the Credit Union there from may nevertheless be returned to Credit Union because, among other reasons, the electronic image is deemed illegible by a paying bank. Credit Union's failure to identify an Exception Item shall not preclude or limit your obligations to Credit Union.

Account Information. We will provide you with daily transaction history via the Internet and the Online service detailing items processed, return items, and deposit adjustments. Retention of Check Images. Credit Union will retain any substitute checks it generates for seven (7) years.

I. Services Fees. Currently there is no monthly fee for the Mobile Deposit Service. You agree to pay all fees and charges for deposit services as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. All Service Fees are subject to change by Credit Union upon thirty (30) days written notice to Member.

m. Disclaimer of Warranties.

Member acknowledges that the service is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. The credit union is not responsible for any errors or omissions in or to any information resulting from your use of the service. The credit union disclaims any warranties regarding the operation, performance or functionality of the service (including, without limitation, that the service will operate without interruption or be error-free). Member further acknowledges that there are certain security, corruption, transmission error and access availability risks associated with using open networks such as the internet and/or telecommunication lines or circuits. Member hereby assumes all risks relating to the foregoing.

n. Credit Union's Liabilities.

Direct Damages. The credit union's liability shall be limited to direct Damages sustained by member and only to the extent such damages are a direct result of the credit union's gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided that the maximum aggregate liability of the credit union resulting from any such claims shall not exceed one hundred dollars. In no event shall the credit union be liable for special, incidental, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind including Lost profits whether or not the credit union has been advised of the possibility of such loss or damage.

o. Your Duty to Report Errors. You will notify Credit Union of any errors, omissions, or interruptions in, or delay or unavailability of, the Services as promptly as practicable, and in any event within one business day after the earliest of discovery thereof, or the date discovery should have occurred through the exercise of reasonable care, and, in the case of any error, within fourteen (14) days of the date of the earliest notice to you which reflects the error. Your failure to notify Credit Union of any error, omission, or other discrepancy within seven (7) days from the date of a loss shall relieve Credit Union of any liability for such error, omission, or discrepancy.

p. Credit Union's Performance. You acknowledge and agree that Credit Union shall not be liable for any damages or loss of any kind resulting from any unintentional error or omission by Credit Union in performing the Service, in accordance with or unintentional deviation from the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You acknowledge that Credit Union's systems and procedures established for providing the Service are commercially reasonable.

q. Limitation. Credit Union shall have no liability to you, or any other person or entity for any loss, damage, cost, or expense arising out of this Agreement or the Service if:

- We receive actual notice or have reason to believe that you filed or commenced a petition or proceeding for relief under any bankruptcy or similar law
- The ownership of funds involving a transaction is in question
- We suspect a breach of the security procedures
- We suspect that your account has been used for illegal or fraudulent purposes; or
- We reasonably believe that a transaction is prohibited by federal law or regulation, or otherwise so provided in the Agreement.
- You fail to report timely any error or discrepancy reflected in an account statement prepared by Credit Union.
- You insert an unauthorized restrictive endorsement
- You fail to report a breach of a security procedure.
- You commit fraud on your account.

The Credit Union shall not be responsible for liability, loss, or damage of any kind resulting from any delay in the performance of or failure to perform its responsibilities hereunder due to causes beyond the Credit Union's reasonable control.

r. Modification of Mobile Deposit Services. Credit Union reserves the right to modify the Service from time to time without making prior notice to Member.

9. Unauthorized Transaction Reporting and Liability.

You are solely responsible for all transfers you authorize using any Services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use your Password and initiate transactions with this Service, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your Accounts.

a. Liability on Business Accounts. For business Accounts, you understand that any transaction by a business owner, employee, agent representative or anyone you authorize to transact business on your Account or any transaction by an authorized person that exceeds the specific transaction authority you have provided, is considered an authorized transaction for which you remain fully responsible. You are responsible for safeguarding your business, financial and personal data, Passwords and other information to prevent unauthorized access to or use of your Accounts through this Service. If you believe your Password has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your Account without your permission, you must notify us immediately. When you give someone your Password, you are authorizing that person to access your deposit Accounts using this Service, and you are responsible for all transactions that person performs while using the Service. All transactions that a person performs even those transactions you did not intend or want performed are authorized transactions. If you notify us that the person is no longer authorized, then only transactions that person performs after the time you notify us are considered unauthorized. Transactions that you or someone acting with you initiates with fraudulent intent are also authorized transactions. For your protection, sign off after every Online session and close your browser to ensure confidentiality.

b. Liability on Consumer Accounts. For EFT transactions on a consumer deposit account, under this Agreement, you are responsible for all transactions you authorize using any EFT services. For consumer Accounts, transactions by family members or friends that you allow on your Account are authorized by you. If you permit other persons to use your Password, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. However, you must notify us immediately if you believe anyone has used your Password and accessed your accounts without your authorization. For EFT transactions, if you notify us within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone accessed your account without your permission. If you do not notify us within two (2) business days after you learn of the unauthorized use of your account or Password, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from accessing your account without your permission if you had told us, you could be liable for as much as $500. If your statement shows EFT transactions that you did not make, notify us immediately. If you do not notify us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may be liable for the full amount of the loss if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the unauthorized EFT transactions. If you believe your Password has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer funds from your account without your permission, contact us immediately by one of the following: 210.442.0100 (refer to firstmarkcu.org for hours of operation) or 800.683.1211 (toll free) or write: Firstmark Credit Union, PO Box 701650, San Antonio, TX 78270-1650.

10. Alerts.

You can elect to receive Automatic Alerts and Voluntary Account Alerts through the Digital Banking service. Automatic Alerts are sent to you following certain changes made online to your Digital Banking account, such as a change in your email or home address, telephone number, Login ID or password. You do not need to activate these alerts. Although you may have the option to suppress some of these Automatic Alerts, we strongly recommend that you do not do so since they are security related. Voluntary Account Alerts must be activated by you. Account Alerts allow you to choose alert messages for your accounts. We may add new alert services, revise or terminate alert services from time to time. Each alert has different options available, and you will be asked to select from among these options upon activation of your alerts service. Both Automatic Alerts and Voluntary Account Alerts will be sent to the email address you have provided as your primary email address for Digital Banking. If your email address changes, you are responsible for informing us of that change. You can also choose to have alerts sent to a secondary email address, including a mobile device that accepts text messages. Changes to your primary and secondary email addresses will apply to all of your Alerts. Text message charges from your provider may apply. You understand and agree that your alerts may be delayed or prevented by a variety of factors. We do our best to provide alerts in a timely manner with accurate information. We neither guarantee the delivery nor the accuracy of the contents of any alert. You also agree that we shall not be liable for any delays, failure to deliver, or misdirected delivery of any alert; for any errors in the content of an alert; or for any actions taken or not taken by you or any third party in reliance of an alert. Because alerts are not encrypted, we will never include your password or full account number. However, alerts may include your name and some information about your accounts. Depending upon which alerts you select, information such as your account balance or the due date for your credit card payment may be included. Anyone with access to your email or text messages will be able to view the contents of these alerts. It is your responsibility to safeguard your device and delivery channels at all times.

11. Fees and Charges.

There are certain fees for the Digital Services as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule. Fees and charges may be changed from time to time. We will notify you of any changes as required by law.

12. Periodic Statements.

Transfers, withdrawals, and purchases transacted through any EFT Service, or with a participating merchant will be recorded on your periodic statement, provided by mail or electronically if you have requested an electronic statement. You will receive a statement monthly unless there is no transaction in a particular month. In any case, you will receive a statement at least quarterly. You may request that your statement be provided electronically. Communications means any periodic statement, year-end tax statement, disclosure, notice, or other information related to your account(s), including but not limited to information that we are required by law to provide to you in writing.

a. Scope of Communications to Be Provided in Electronic Form. You agree that we may provide you with any Communications relating to your account(s) in electronic format, and that we may discontinue sending paper Communications to you, unless and until you withdraw your consent as described below. Your consent to receive electronic Communications includes, but is not limited to:

- Periodic disclosures or monthly billing statements for your account(s).
- Periodic balance and transaction activity statements for your account(s).
- Notices or disclosures about a change in the terms of your account(s) or associated payment feature.
- Notices or disclosures that are required by law to be provided to you in writing.
- Privacy policies and notices.

b. Refused Transfers. We reserve the right to refuse any transfer to a Recipient Account.

We will notify you promptly if we decide to refuse to transfer funds to a Recipient Account. This notification is not required if you attempt to make a prohibited transfer under this Agreement.

Method of Providing Communications to You in Electronic Form. All Communications that we provide to you in electronic form will be provided either (1) via email at the email address you provide to us, (2) by access to a website that we will designate in an email notice we send to you at the time the information is available, or (3) to the extent permissible by law, by access to a website that will generally be designated in advance for such purpose.

How to Withdraw Consent. You can withdraw your consent at any time by calling Firstmark Credit Union or visiting any of our Financial Centers.

How to Update Your Records. It is your responsibility to provide us with a true, accurate and complete email address, contact, and other information related to this disclosure and your account(s), and to maintain and update promptly any changes in this information. You can update such information in Digital Banking by visiting our website, downloading our mobile application, or by contacting us.

Requesting Paper Copies. We will not send you a paper copy of any Communications from us, unless you request it or we otherwise deem it appropriate to do so. While your account(s) are open, you can obtain a free paper copy of the electronic Communications by printing them yourself or by requesting that we mail you a paper copy. To request a paper copy, contact us. We may charge you a reasonable service charge for the delivery of paper copies of any Communications provided to you electronically pursuant to your authorization.

Federal Law. You acknowledge and agree that your consent to electronic Communications is being provided in connection with a transaction affecting interstate commerce that is subject to the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, and that you and we both intend that the Act apply to the fullest extent possible to validate our ability to conduct business with you by electronic means. We reserve the right to provide any disclosures or notices in writing, rather than electronically. Except as otherwise provided by law or in other agreements, you can give us all notices regarding your account or your periodic statements, except for stop payment orders, by email using our current email address, regardless of anything in this agreement to the contrary; however, we reserve the right to have any notices confirmed in writing upon request.

Statement Errors.

In case of errors or questions about your Online or Mobile Banking transactions on a consumer account, contact us at: 210.442.0100 (refer to firstmarkcu.org for hours of operation) or 800.683.1211 (toll free) or write: Firstmark Credit Union, PO Box 701650, San Antonio, TX 78270-1650. The following notice and investigation requirements apply to consumer accounts only. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent the first statement on which the problem appears.

- Tell us your name and member number.
- Describe the transaction you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten

(10) business days We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct the error promptly. For errors related to transactions occurring within thirty (30) days after the first deposit to the account (new accounts), we will tell you the results of our investigation within twenty (20) business days. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) calendar days to investigate your complaint or question (ninety (90) calendar days for new account transaction errors, or errors involving transactions initiated outside the United States). If we decide to do this, we will re-credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not re-credit your account.

If we decide after our investigation that an error did not occur, we will deliver or mail to you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after the conclusion of our investigation. If you request, we will provide you copies of documents (to the extent possible without violating other members' rights to privacy) relied upon to conclude that the error did not occur.

13. Account Information Disclosure.

We will maintain the confidentiality and privacy of your account information in accordance with our Privacy Policy as stated on our website at: www.firstmarkcu.org. However, we may disclose information to third parties about your account or the transactions you submit in the following limited circumstances:

- As necessary to complete transfers, Bill Pay and Mobile Deposit;
- To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
- To comply with government agencies or court orders;
- If you give us your express written permission.

14. Credit Union Liability for Digital Services.

a. Consumer Accounts. Except for emergency or unforeseen events, if we do not complete a transaction to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we may be liable for your losses or damages. Our sole responsibility for an error in a transaction will be to correct the error and in no case will we be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages. Also, we will not be liable if you fail to report timely any error or discrepancy reflected in a statement prepared by us, or if you fail to report a breach of a security procedure in states that do not allow the exclusion or limitation of such damages, our liability is limited to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Credit Union will not be liable for the following:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have sufficient funds in your account to complete the transaction, your account is inactive, or the transaction would exceed the credit limit on your line of credit, if applicable.
- If you used the wrong account or Password, you have not properly followed any applicable service or Credit Union user instructions for making Online and Mobile Banking transactions.
- If your personal computer malfunctioned or the phone lines were not working properly, or the Credit Union computer system was not working properly, and such problem(s) should have been apparent when you attempted your transaction.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, telecommunication outages or strikes, equipment or power failure) prevent making the transaction.
- If the funds in your account are subject to an administrative hold, legal process or other claim.
- If you have not given the Credit Union complete, correct, and current instructions so the Credit Union can process the transaction.
- If, through no fault of ours, Online, Mobile Banking or External Transfer transaction(s) does not reach a particular recipient due to changes in the payee address, account number or otherwise; the time you allow for payment delivery was insufficient; payment is lost in the mail or the payee failed to process a payment correctly or in a timely manner and a fee, penalty, or interest charge is assessed against you.

- If an error was caused by a system beyond the Credit Union's control such as a telecommunications system, an Internet Service Provider, any computer virus or problems related to software not provided by the Credit Union.
- If there are other exceptions as established by the Credit Union.

b. Business Accounts. The Credit Union shall have no liability to you, or any other person or entity for any loss, damage, cost, or expense arising out of this Agreement or the Services regardless of the form in which asserted, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), warranty, or any other legal or equitable grounds, and regardless of whether the remedies available fail of their essential purpose, except as provided by applicable law for any error or delay in performing the Services provided for in this Agreement. We shall have no liability for not completing a transaction, if we receive actual notice or have reason to believe that you have filed for bankruptcy, the ownership of funds involving a transaction or the Authorized Representative's authority to conduct a transaction is in question; we suspect your Account has been used for illegal or fraudulent purposes; or we reasonably believe that a transaction is prohibited by federal law or regulation, or this Agreement. We will not be liable if you fail to report timely any error or discrepancy reflected in a statement prepared by us, or if you fail to report a breach of a security procedure. If we fail to perform under this Agreement in accordance with the standards set herein, our liability for damages, losses, and other compensation owing to you shall be limited to direct damages caused solely by the Credit Union. We shall not be liable for any loss, damage, liability, or claim arising directly or indirectly from any error, delay, or failure to perform hereunder which is caused by earthquakes, fires, natural disasters, civil or foreign disturbances, power outages, acts of government, labor disputes, failures in either communication or computer networks, legal constraints, or any other event beyond its control.

15. Enforcement.

You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of Texas as applied to contracts entered into solely between residents of, and to be performed entirely in, such state. In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to, subject to Texas law, payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable. Should any one or more provisions of this Agreement be determined illegal or unenforceable in any relevant jurisdiction, then such provision be modified by the proper court, if possible, but only to the extent necessary to make the provision enforceable and such modification shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement.
